Introduction

As a leader within your community you can play a VERY IMPORTANT and strategic role in the Improving Financial Awareness and Financial Literacy Movement, while creating new goodwill and new revenues opportunities for you, your organization and many nonprofits. This can be done by actively supporting and participating within the semiannual personal financial content media blitz built around the strategic campaign venues of National Financial Literacy Month (April) and National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week (3rd week in October).

The plan is to touch the majority of the general public, high net worth individuals, financial service and nonprofit professionals and their organizations at least twice a year through these strategic venues, with educational and motivating reminders to get and keep their financial, estate, and gift plans in order.

With so many people on the verge of running out of money before their life expectancy, many families burdened with large amounts of student loans and other forms of debt, and more than half of our adults not having up-to-date estate and financial plans to protect themselves and their families, we have a serious problem. This lack of financial awareness and financial literacy places a HUGE growing amount of pressure on families and friends, employers, nonprofits; as well as the government.

Managing personal finances today is more complicated and more important than ever. We're living longer, but saving proportionately less. Scores of us feel less secure in our jobs and homes than we did in the past. We see our money being drained by the high cost of housing, taxes, education, health care, estate planning while dealing with the uncertainty of investments and our economy. We worry about the future, or unfortunately in many cases, simply try not to think about it.

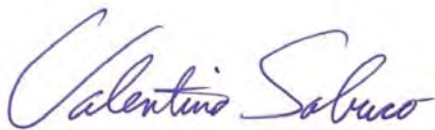

Most people are not taught the essential principle to smart personal financial management at home or in school, thus they don't have the proper tools to address every day financial decisions in an informed manner. This jeopardizes their financial and physical wellness, their ability to realistically achieve and maintain their personal and financial dreams, let alone enjoy a financially secure debt free future.

There is a real solution to this lack of financial awareness and financial literacy epidemic that revolves around better educating the general public, financial service and nonprofit professionals to the essential principles to smart personal financial management – the foundation to personal finance knowledge - while motivating them to take appropriate actions. People need access to better personal financial management tools and information, to communicate and work more effectively with their financial advisors, and to make better every day informed financial decisions. We can use your assistance.

If you would like a Word version of the Information Kit for ease of editing or to co-brand with your organization please let us know and we will gladly promptly email it to you.

We hope you will join us in participating and communicating these important opportunities with your colleagues and reader and we look forward to working with you on the Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement & Campaigns™ built around the strategic venues of National Financial Literacy Month and National Estate Planning Awareness Month/Week.

On behalf of The Financial Awareness Foundation and the participating associations, organizations, nonprofits, universities, employers, municipalities, and professionals thank you for your efforts and for assisting us in having a positive ongoing impact on improving financial awareness and financial literacy.

We Need Your Assistance

With so many people on the verge of running out of money before their life expectancy, many families burdened with large amounts of student loans and other forms of debt, and more than half of our adults (120 million American's – from poor to wealthy) not having up-to-date estate and financial plans to protect themselves and their families, we have a serious problem. This lack of financial awareness and financial literacy places a HUGE growing amount of pressure on families and friends, employers, nonprofits; as well as the government.

Tactics for Attorneys, CAPs, CFA, CFP®, CTFA, ChFC®, CLU®, CPAs, CPA/PFS, RIA, and other financial service and nonprofit professionals to advance their business while making the world a better place

Key Takeaways

- Families of aging Baby Boomers are transferring more wealth in the next ten years than at any previous time in history.
- An estimated 120 million Americans—perhaps half of the adults in our community-- have no up-to-date estate plan nor understand the importance of having such a plan to protect themselves and their families.
- Think “family office” for small and aspirational clients—it's not just for the ultra-wealthy
- Take an active leadership role in The Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement personal finance content media blitz and encourage people to get and keep their financial, estate, and gift plans in order.

We live in one of the most exhilarating times in the annals of all mankind. However there are many challenges to attracting, retaining and growing satisfied clients on the path to building a successful practice. The following outlines a significant opportunity for you – the elite financial advisors to advance their practices by attracting motivated and primed clients, while helping to grow a strong a financially sound domestic and international economy.

The Big Challenge

Managing personal finances today is more complicated, time consuming, and more important than ever. We are living longer, but saving proportionately less. We feel less secure in our jobs, homes, and overall outlooks than previous generations did. We watch, helplessly, as our money evaporates due to exorbitant costs of housing, taxes, education, health care and life's too many “unexpecteds.” Many clients and prospects worry about the future, or unfortunately in many cases, they simply try not to think about it. Until “it” happens--a financial catastrophe which could have been avoided by some advanced planning.

Most people are not taught the essential principle to smart personal financial management – the foundation to personal finance knowledge - at home or in school, thus they don't have the proper tools to address every day financial decisions in an informed manner. This jeopardizes their financial and physical wellness, their ability to realistically achieve and maintain their personal and financial dreams, let alone enjoy a financially secure debt free future.

Many people don't realize that

- The majority of the adults in the US that reach the age of 70 are almost out of money, but have life expectancies well into their mid-80's and maybe into their 90's. That's disastrous. Who will be responsible for them? The choices are few, family and friends, employers, nonprofits and people with money, and the government as a final safety net.
- Over 120 million adults, 50% of our adult population don't have nor understand the importance of having a current financial, estate and gift plan to protect themselves and their assets in the event of sickness or when they pass away. This is a real problem, as most feel they don't have an estate to plan for; this is NOT TRUE. Estate planning is not just for the wealthy and elderly; it's important for everyone.
 - If people don't have an estate plan their asset may not pass to their desired party, and there is no way for their significant or modest assets to get to their favorite charities or causes, as asset then pass by title, beneficiary designation, and the state laws of intestate succession which by default goes to close then distant family, if none exist they then revert to the state of domicile after taxes and costs.

- What could Prince's estate of $300+ million do in the right hands? Music scholarships, teach entrepreneurship, help advance cures for health problems, help feed many, improve financial awareness and financial literacy, etc.
- Too many young people and their families are burdened with excessive education debt and other forms of debt. Student loan debt exceeds $1.3 trillion and is the 2nd largest class of consumer debt after mortgages; members of the class of 2016 graduated with an AVERAGE of $37,000 in student loan debt. Those with graduate degrees are significantly greater.
- The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau released a report in January that examined the link between financial education and financial well-being. A key finding was that while many adults desire to educate themselves to become more financially literate, they often seek out that information only within their social networks. This cuts across all demographics, including education level and income. This is quite alarming: People are making critical life decisions based on information gained from non-experts and fragmented sources.
- We have entered into the greatest wealth transfer in history. An estimated $59 trillion - divided among heirs, charities, estate taxes and estate closing costs - is being transferred from 116 million American households from 2007 to 2061 as reported by John J. Havens and Paul G. Schervish from the Center on Wealth and Philanthropy Boston College.
- Without some financial and estate planning a significant amount of these assets will be wasted; much of the remaining assets may not go to the right person(s) or organization(s), and or may not be used as intended.
- However, this huge wealth transfer is not for all families, many will run out of money long before passing.
- This is not just a domestic challenge it is an international one.

Note: Rich, poor or somewhere in between--that's about half the adults in your hometown: many prospects that need your assistance and are able to pay for your expertise.*

Many people mistakenly believe they are not "rich," and assume they don't need estate and financial planning or gift planning - NOT SO.

Note: This attitude can be very harmful financially and can be avoided with some education and proactive actions.*

The majority of Americans over 65 are totally dependent on their Social Security checks.

Note: With proper knowledge, motivation, and planning, future generations can have a more secure future; think "family office" for your midsize and aspirational clients. The typical definition for "Family Office" clients is in excess of $50 million. However, if you can talk with your smaller and aspirational clients about combining several generations of their families to work together, then you can increase the size of your client base, while retaining and helping to manage those assets more efficiently than you would by keeping them as individual clients.*

A Solution and Master Plan

As longtime financial service professionals and leaders in the financial and estate planning and charitable planning communities, you have firsthand experience about the challenges Americans face with saving, retirement planning, dealing with major expenditures, investing, taxes, risk management, estate planning and overall planning for their financial futures. Share your knowledge and experience; take an active leadership role and be part of the Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement and the concentrated personal financial and estate planning and gift planning content media campaigns around the strategic venues of National Financial Literacy Month (April) and National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week (3rd week in October).

14th Anniversary of National Financial Literacy Month

In 2004 the Senate passed Resolution 316 officially recognizing April as National Financial Literacy Month. In 2011 President Obama signed a Presidential Proclamation deeming April as National Financial Literacy Month. Please add the following link to your web browser to see the text of the proclamation and some further background information.

10th Anniversary of National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week (3rd Week in October)

In 2008 Congressman's Mike Thompson and 49 bipartisan congressmen and congresswomen co-authored and passed H.Res. 1499, which officially made the third week in October National Estate Planning Awareness Week. The full text of the proclamation can be found at

The plan is to touch the majority of the general public, high net worth individuals, financial service and nonprofit professionals and their organizations at least twice a year through these strategic campaign venues, with educational and motivating reminders to get and keep your financial, estate, and gift plans in order.

About The Financial Awareness Foundation

The Financial Awareness Foundation, (TFAF), is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. TFAF serves as a nonpolitical “financial awareness advocate” for the general public, financial service and nonprofit professionals and their organizations, educational institutions, municipalities, and employers. Our mission is to significantly help solve a major social problem by dealing with the lack of financial awareness and financial literacy. We believe that teaching financial awareness, financial literacy and the essential principles to smart personal financial management are very important as this gives people the tools of empowerment to: make better informed and productive everyday money decisions; save time and money with their financial advisors and service providers; have the best opportunities to reach and maintain their personal / family financial dreams; enjoy a financially secure debt free future; while they advance their philanthropy and legacy.

The Financial Awareness Foundation has two main focal points and they revolve around:

1. Taking an active leadership role to recognize organizations and their management that are championing improving financial awareness and financial literacy. We are then uniting them with other associations, organizations, nonprofits, educational institutions, municipalities, and employers to actively focus their vast community resources into The Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement & Campaigns - a growing concentrated personal finance content media blitz every six months through the strategic campaign venues of
 - National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week
 - National Financial Literacy Month

The plan is to touch the majority of the general public, high net worth individuals, financial service and nonprofit professionals and their organizations at least twice a year through these strategic venues, with educational and motivating reminders to get and keep their financial, estate, and gift plans in order.

2. The Foundation delivers and develops exceptional educational content for the general public and for financial service and nonprofit professionals, and educational institutions that support the public's financial and estate planning and charitable planning needs.

Organizations and individuals are not required to financially support The Financial Awareness Foundation in any way. They do not pay any marketing or membership fee, or make a contribution in order to participate in this important improving financial awareness and financial literacy movement, campaigns and programs. And we develop and distribute high quality materials at ‘NO Cost’. But as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit financial support and contributions are always welcomed and very much appreciated.

Have You Ever Heard Someone Say...

“Doesn’t the government provide for that?”

“Estate and financial planning is too complicated and expensive.”

“All my property is titled in joint tenancy with my spouse so I don’t need a will.”

“Estate and financial planning is only for the rich.”

“I’m too young to do estate or financial planning.”

The Foundation serves as a nonpolitical and neutral “financial awareness advocate” for the public, the professionals and their associations, educational institutions, municipalities, and nonprofits.

Our mission is to significantly help solve a major social problem dealing with the lack of financial awareness and financial literacy. We believe that teaching financial literacy and the essential principles of smart financial management are very important. This gives people the tools to address everyday financial decisions in a more informed manner and have the best possibilities to reach and maintain their personal financial freedom, security, and philanthropy.

WE CAN’T DO THIS ALONE – WE NEED YOUR HELP!

#1. Short Introduction and Call to Action to financial service industry and nonprofit association and organization members for emails or posting on your website

The following is a Financial Service and Nonprofit Association and Organization brief introduction and call to action to support and actively participate in the Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement & Campaigns built around the strategic venues of the 8th anniversary of National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week (NEPAM/W) and six months later during this October 13th anniversary of National Financial Literacy Month (NFLM) in April. This introduction can be edited as appropriate and displayed on your organization's websites, social media groups, newsletters, announcements and as a quick outline for discussing NFLM and NEPAM/W with colleagues.

Help make a BIG difference while increasing your bottom line! Join Us in Participating in the Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Campaigns Built Around National Estate Planning Awareness in October and National Financial Literacy Month in April

Here is a great opportunity for you to create goodwill and new revenue opportunities for you and your organization, while performing a very important and values community service. And it's fun and easy to do.

A Very Big Social Challenge That Requires Attention Now

With so many people on the verge of running out of money before their life expectancy and over half your family, friends, neighbors, and business associates not having an up-to-date estate plans to protect themselves and their families we have a serious problem. This lack of financial awareness and financial literacy places a huge amount of pressure on families and friends, employers, nonprofits; as well as the government.

Do You Realize?

- The majority of the adults in the US that reach the age of 70 are almost out of money, but have life expectancies well into their mid-80's and maybe into their 90's. That's disastrous. Who will be responsible for them? The choices are few, family and friends, nonprofits and people with money, and the government as a final safety net.
- It is estimated that over 120 million adult Americans do not have an up-to-date estate plan to protect themselves and their family's assets. This can lead to a significant and unnecessary shrinkage of family assets and an enormous waste of time and resources at the most inopportune time. Financial and estate planning is not just for the wealthy it's important for everyone.
- Too many young people and their families are burdened with excessive education debt and other forms of debt. Student loan debt exceeds $1.3 trillion and is the 2nd largest class of consumer debt after mortgages; members of the class of 2016 graduated with an AVERAGE of $37,000 in student loan debt. Those with graduate degrees are significantly greater.
- These financial challenges are not just a domestic problem. These are also international challenges and place a growing amount of pressure on families and friends, employers, nonprofits, as well as the governments.

Additionally we have entered into the greatest wealth transfer in history. An estimated $59 trillion - divided among heirs, charities, estate taxes and estate closing costs - will be transferred from 116 million American households from 2007 to 2061. Without some financial and estate planning a significant amount these assets will be wasted, and much of the remaining assets may not go to the right person(s) or organization(s), and or may not be used as intended.

The Solution

There is a real solution to this lack of financial literacy epidemic that revolves around educating and motivating the public, professionals, and nonprofits to take appropriate actions and we could use your assistance.

You can play an integral role in joining with your colleagues from financial and nonprofit associations and organization, employers, educational institutions, government agencies, and the news media to support and actively participate in building semiannual financial awareness programs to touch the vast majority of the general public at least twice a year with a subtle concentrated personal finance content media blitz campaign around the strategic venues of:

- National Financial Literacy Month (NFLM - April)
- National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week (NEPAM/W - 3rd Week in October)

5. Financially support these amazing, broad-based, multifaceted campaigns for improving financial awareness and financial literacy by reallocating existing marketing dollars and or adding new dollars to these important biannual campaigns.

Who Benefits From This Undertaking?

What a great opportunity for you to create goodwill and new revenue opportunities while performing a very important and valuable community service.

- You benefit by being recognized as a thought leader that is significantly helping to solve a major social problem. This will create goodwill for you and your organization that will attract new patrons, retain existing ones, and build support for your own other initiatives.
- You, your staff, patrons, and prospects benefit by receiving personal financial and estate planning materials to improve their personal financial position and receive a powerful campaign and program to use within your organization to generate new sources of revenues.
- Families benefit by learning the essential principles to smart financial management so they can make better every day informed financial decisions, and have the best opportunities to reach and maintain their personal and family financial goals, financial freedom and security, while they advance their personal philanthropy.
- Other financial service professionals and their organizations benefit by acquiring new business from more informed and motivated clients.
- Employers benefit from having employees who are less stressed, happier and more productive.
- Nonprofits and fundraisers benefit with increased donations, planned gifts, alternate beneficiary selections and bequests.
- Philanthropists benefit by helping to solve a major social problem that leads to a better world.
- The news media benefits by providing its audience with timely valuable information.
- Municipalities benefit by having happier and financially successful constituents, and a reduced strain on social welfare services.
- Everyone actually benefits with a stronger and financially sound economy.

Together we have the potential to help solve a major social challenge by advancing and contributing to one of the most broad-based, multifaceted moments for improving financial awareness and financial literacy while advancing philanthropy.

RE: Help make a BIG difference while increasing your bottom line!
The Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement & Campaigns built around National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week October and National Financial Literacy Month in April

Dear {Your organization's Council, or Chapter or Branch Office name} Member:

I'm writing today to inform you of two incredibly important improving financial awareness and financial literacy initiatives supported by {your organization's name} to get your personal support and participation in

1. National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week (3rd Week in October)
2. Financial Literacy Month (April)

Here is a great opportunity for you to create goodwill and new revenue opportunities for you and your organization, while performing a very important and values community service. And it's fun and easy to do.

We Have A Very Big Social Challenge That Requires Attention Now

With so many people on the verge of running out of money before their life expectancy, many families burdened with large amounts of student loans and other forms of debt, and more than half of our adults don't have nor understand the importance of having an up-to-date financial, and estate and gift plans to protect themselves and their families, we have a serious problem. This lack of financial awareness and financial literacy places a HUGE growing amount of pressure on families and friends, employers, nonprofits; as well as the government.

Do You Realize?

- The majority of the adults in the US that reach the age of 70 are almost out of money, but have life expectancies well into their mid-80's and maybe into their 90's. That's disastrous. Who will be responsible for them? The choices are few, family and friends, employers, nonprofits and people with money, and the government as a final safety net.
- Over 120 million adults, 50% of our adult population (that could be half your family and friends and business associates) don't have nor understand the importance of having a current financial, estate and gift plan to protect themselves and their assets in the event of sickness or when they pass away. This is a real problem, as most feel they don't have an estate to plan for; this is NOT TRUE. Estate planning is not just for the wealthy and is important for everyone. With some advance planning, issues such as managing bill paying and assets in the event of sickness or disability, guardianship of children, care of a special needs child and long-term care needs, and distribution of retirement plan and other assets to the correct person(s) and nonprofit(s) at ones death can all be handled with sensitivity, care, and at a reasonable cost.
- Too many young people and their families are burdened with excessive education debt and other forms of debt. Student loan debt exceeds $1.3 trillion and is the 2nd largest class of consumer debt after mortgages; members of the class of 2016 graduated with an AVERAGE of $37,000 in student loan debt. Those with graduate degrees are significantly greater.

Additionally we have entered into the greatest wealth transfer in history. An estimated $59 trillion - divided among heirs, charities, estate taxes and estate closing costs - will be transferred from 116 million American households from 2007 to 2061.

Without some financial and estate planning a significant amount these assets will be wasted, with much of the remaining assets may not go to the right person(s) or organization(s), and or may not be used as intended.

The Master Plan and How Everyone Benefits

There is a real solution to this lack of financial awareness and financial literacy epidemic that revolves around better educating the general public, financial service and nonprofit professionals to the essential principles to smart personal financial management while motivating them to take appropriate actions. People need access to better personal financial management tools and information, to communicate and work more effectively with their financial advisors, and to make better every day informed financial decisions. We can use your assistance.

Member of {your organization's name} can play an integral role in joining with our colleagues from financial and nonprofit associations and organization, employers, government agencies, and the news media to support and participate in building semiannual financial awareness programs to touch the vast majority of the general public at least twice a year with a concentrated personal finance content media blitz around the strategic campaign venues of:

- National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week (NEPAM/W - 3rd Week in October)
- National Financial Literacy Month (NFLM - April)
- National Estate Planning Awareness Week – founders of The Financial Awareness Foundation approached Congressman's Mike Thompson office with the idea of creating a National Estate Planning Awareness Week Congressional proclamation. After eighteen months of research and work in 2008 Congressman Thompson and 49 bipartisan congressmen and congresswomen co-authored and passed H.Res. 1499, which proclaims the third week in October as National Estate Planning Awareness Week.

- National Financial Literacy Month – in 2004 the Senate passed Resolution 316 that officially recognized April as National Financial Literacy Month. In 2011 President Obama signed a Presidential Proclamation proclaiming April as National Financial Literacy Month. was created by Congress and supported by President Barack Obama.

- Press & Industry Media Kit - For additional information about the financial awareness campaigns, download the full media kit, and see the latest Campaign Report & Scrapbook please visit the Campaign tab at www.TheFinancialAwarenessFoundation.org/

We can assist this national effort by getting our local financial service companies, junior colleges, colleges & universities, employers, unions, nonprofits newspapers and other media to publish estate and financial planning educational materials, guides and checklists, tools, and content during these times each year. Together we have the potential to help advance and contribute to one of the most amazing, broad-based, multifaceted campaigns for improving financial awareness and financial literacy.
