Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement Program Overview / Planner

As a community leader you can play a VERY IMPORTANT and strategic role in improving financial awareness and financial literacy, while creating goodwill and new revenues opportunities for you and many nonprofits. This can be done by actively supporting and participating within the semiannual personal finance content media blitz built around the strategic campaign venues of National Financial Literacy Month (April) and National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week (3rd week in October).

With so many people on the verge of running out of money before their life expectancy, many families burdened with large amounts of student loans and other forms of consumer debt, and more than half of our adults not having nor aware of the importance of having up-to-date financial, estate, and gift plans to protect themselves and their families, we have a serious problem. This lack of financial awareness and financial literacy places a HUGE growing amount of pressure on families and friends, employers, nonprofits; as well as the local, state, and federal government.

We Have A Serious Problem that Requires Immediate Attention

Many people don't realize that

- The majority of the adults in the US that reach the age of 70 are almost out of money, but have life expectancies well into their mid-80's and maybe into their 90's. That's disastrous. Who will be responsible for them? The choices are few, family and friends, employers, nonprofits and people with money, and the government as a final safety net.
- Over 120 million adults, 50% of our adult population don't have nor realize the importance of having a current financial and estate plan to protect themselves and their assets in the event of sickness or when they pass away. This is a real problem, as most feel they don't have an estate to plan for; this is NOT TRUE. Estate planning is not just for the wealthy and elderly; it's important for everyone.
- Too many young people and their families are burdened with excessive education and other forms of debt.
- The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau released a report in January that examined the link between financial education and financial well-being. A key finding was that while many adults desire to educate themselves to become more financially literate, they often seek out that information only within their social networks. This cuts across all demographics, including education level and income. This is quite alarming: People are making critical life decisions based on information gained from non-experts and fragmented sources.
- We have entered into the greatest wealth transfer in history. An estimated $59 trillion - divided among heirs, charities, estate taxes and estate closing costs – is being transferred from 116 million American households from 2007 to 2061 as reported by John J. Havens and Paul G. Schervish from the Center on Wealth and Philanthropy Boston College.

- Without some financial and estate planning a significant amount of these assets will be wasted; much of the remaining assets may not go to the right person(s) or organization(s), and or may not be used as intended.
- However, this huge wealth transfer is not for all families, many will run out of money long before passing.
- This is not just a domestic challenge it is an international one.

Managing personal finances today is more complicated and more important than ever. We're living longer, but saving proportionately less. Scores of us feel less secure in our jobs and homes than we did in the past.

Most people are not taught the essential principle to smart personal financial management at home or in school, thus they don't have the proper tools to address every day financial decisions in an informed manner. This jeopardizes their financial and physical wellness, their ability to realistically achieve and maintain their personal and financial dreams, let alone enjoy a financially secure debt free future.

People need access to better personal financial management tools and information, to communicate and work more effectively with their financial advisors, and to make better every day informed financial decisions.

To learn more about this epidemic review our white paper We Have a Lack of Financial Awareness & Financial Illiteracy Epidemic that Requires Immediate Attention

<http://www.thefinancialawarenessfoundation.org/pdf/TFAF-WhitePaper-LackofFinAware-FinlliteracyEpidemic.pdf>

We can use your assistance.

We realize that you may not be a financial service or nonprofit professional, but as a concerned individual / organization you can encourage your associates, employees, clients, donors and prospects to think about their personal financial and estate planning to improve for their future. A thoughtful and engaged individual is one who has planned financially and understands where he or she is and is going financially, and what they can do today and in their future. Encouraging and teaching financial literacy and the key essential principles to smart financial management are critical to the future economic health of the country, nonprofits, and the general public. People need to be empowered to communicate and work more effectively with their financial advisors and to make better informed and productive everyday money decisions.

The Master Plan and How Everyone Benefits

There is a real solution to this lack of financial awareness and financial literacy epidemic that revolves around better educating the general public, financial service and nonprofit professionals to the essential principles to smart personal financial management while motivating them to take appropriate actions. People need access to better personal financial management tools and information, to communicate and work more effectively with their financial advisors, and to make better every day informed money decisions.

You can play an integral role in joining with your colleagues from the financial service, nonprofit, and academic communities, employers, government agencies, and the news media in supporting and actively participating in building semiannual financial awareness programs to touch the vast majority of the general public. This can be accomplished with the subtle concentrated personal finance content media blitz around the strategic campaign venues of:

- National Financial Literacy Month (NFLM - April)
- National Estate Planning Awareness Month / Week (NEPAW - 3rd Week in October)

The plan is to touch the majority of the general public, high net worth individuals, financial service and nonprofit professionals and their organizations at least twice a year through these strategic campaign venues, with educational and motivating reminders to get and keep your financial, estate, and gift plans in order.

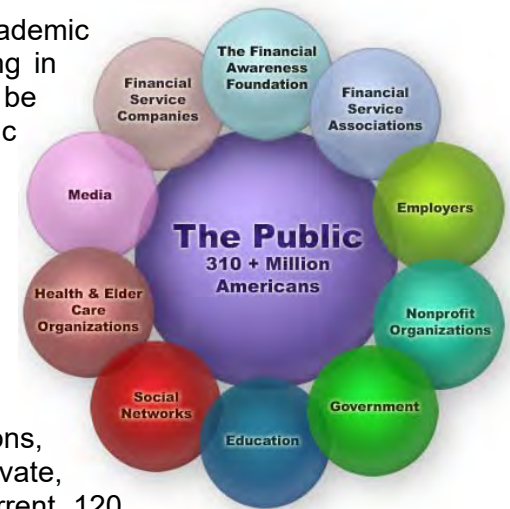

The objective is to encourage you and other financial / nonprofit / education professionals and their organizations, employers, municipalities, and the news media to actively participate in this movement to alert, educate, motivate, and assist everyone to cost effectively establish and keep their estate and financial plans and gifting plans current. 120 million America's-half the adults; rich to poor - don't have plans, that's a lot of quality business for the financial service and nonprofit professionals!

Below is a link to the Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement Report & Magazine. This report provides a broad picture of the lack of financial awareness and financial illiteracy epidemic, an overview of the strategy behind the movement and campaigns, and a sampling of the community participation, which includes 20+ state governors supporting proclamations.

TFAF Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Programs

1. The Your financial PARTNER University / College Program™ Executive Summary & Overview

This is a life-long learning program for graduating students, faculty and staff, and alumni while building lifelong community relations and advancing development efforts. In 2017 this was piloted at the University of Miami - School of Law to its graduating class in the spring, and the student athletes at Sonoma State University to its graduating athletes.

In 2018 we are rolling out this program to other universities and colleges across the country. The Association of Fund Raising Professionals (AFP) will soon be introducing this to their 40+ collegiate chapters.

Last year we launched the first Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Student Club Miami Dade College. This spring they will be providing programs to the graduating class and a community in Miami.

Wouldn't this be a great club for students interested in entering the financial service and nonprofit professions?

What do you think about program for universities and colleges you touch?

We also in discussion with several international universities as a way of launching The Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement in their countries! Wouldn't this make a GREAT international movement! What global financial service companies would find this interesting? If we can double the buying power of the growing global middle class through emerging third world countries like the BRIC (Brazil, Russia, India, and China) nations and Africa that will create a huge windfall for all financial service and product providers!!!

2. The Financially Green Organization Certification Program™ Executive Summary & Overview and leading financial service and nonprofit associations and their members, professionals, financial service companies and nonprofits, small and large employers, technology companies, municipalities, and the news media in supporting and participating in the strategic venues.

Together these organizations represent nearly 1,000,000 financial professionals. The accountants, attorneys, estate planners, financial planners and advisors, insurance agents and brokers, trust officers, and nonprofit executive directors and development officers that are members of these organizations are helping to mobilize the financial and estate planning and nonprofit communities by providing support, tools, and education for their professionals and the general public they serve.

How You Benefit

What a great opportunity for you to create goodwill and new revenue opportunities while performing a very important and values community service.

- You benefit by being recognized as a thought leader that is significantly helping to solve a major social problem. This will create goodwill for you and your organization that will attract new patrons, retain existing ones, and build support for your own other initiatives.
- You, your staff, patrons, prospects, and associates benefit by receiving personal financial and estate planning materials to improve their personal financial position and you receive a powerful campaign and program to use within your organization to generate new sources of revenues.
- Families benefit by learning the essential principles to smart financial management; it empowers them to make better informed productive everyday financial decisions, save time and money with their financial advisors and service providers, and have the best possibilities to reach and maintain their personal and family financial dreams, to enjoy a financial secure debt free future, while they advance their legacy.
- Financial service professionals and their organizations benefit by acquiring new business from more informed and motivated clients.
- Employers benefit from having employees who are less stressed, happier and more productive.
- Nonprofits and fundraisers benefit with increased donations, planned gifts, alternate beneficiary selections and bequests.
- Universities benefit by having alumni, faculty and staff who are less stressed, happier and more productive and more philanthropic.
- Philanthropists benefit by helping to solve a major social problem that leads to a better world.
- The news media benefits by providing its audience with timely valuable information.
- Municipalities benefit by having happier and financially successful constituents, and a reduced strain on social welfare services.
- Everyone actually benefits with a stronger and financially sound economy.

Together we have the potential to help solve a major social challenge by advancing and contributing to one of the most broad-based, multifaceted moments for improving financial awareness and financial literacy while advancing philanthropy

Fun Ways to Participate in The Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement & Campaigns

We've assembled the following collection of tools to assist you, your office(s), your council(s) and chapter(s) to help to get this important message out to other leaders to support and to actively participate in the Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Awareness Movement & Campaign and programs.

1. Place financial and estate planning editorial content within your websites, newsletters, social media groups, local newspapers, and radio/television/web-based shows, in support of National Financial Literacy Month and National Estate Planning Awareness Week; and encourage your readers to get and keep their financial, estate and gift plans up to date. If you need content please contact us or see the sample articles Press & Industry Media Kits and Guides found under the Campaign tab at

- ✓ Very informative. You have changed my thought process regarding estate planning. This will be a topic of discussion in my family very soon. Thank you.
- ✓ A very good attempt to simplify complex estate planning information. Thank you!
- ✓ I think the seminar was fine. But I already had this material under control. I do admit I never thought of what to do with my 5 cats if my wife and I were both to die! That was a new idea.
- ✓ I attended as a development staff member of a nonprofit foundation and learned a lot about what our prospective donors should be doing with regard to planning. Also, it was a good reminder for myself.
- ✓ Very well done. A lot of useful information packed into one hour!
- ✓ Great motivation! Would like to share with supporters of our non-profit. Is there a recording of it we can share? Thanks!
- ✓ Great job. I like that your materials focused on HOW to do estate planning, not just understanding it.

We can work with you to do something like this with and for your organization. We have scripted public presentations that you can be easily customized and branded that are entitled

- “Building Blocks to Successful Financial Planning”

About The Financial Awareness Foundation

The Financial Awareness Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization; our mission is to significantly help solve a major social problem dealing with the lack of financial awareness and financial literacy.

So many people are on the verge of running out of money prematurely. Many families are burdened with large amounts of student loans and other forms of debt. More than half of our adults in America (120 million – poor to wealthy) do not have nor understand the importance of having an up-to-date estate, financial and gift plans to protect themselves and their families. We have a serious problem. This lack of financial awareness, along with the financial illiteracy epidemic places a HUGE growing amount of pressure on families and friends, employers, nonprofits; as well as the ultimate safety net the state and federal government. This is not just a US epidemic it's an international one.

To help solve this major social challenge, The Foundation serves as a nonpolitical “financial awareness advocate” for the general public, the financial service and nonprofit professionals and their organizations, educational institutions, municipalities, and employers.

We believe that teaching financial awareness, financial literacy and the essential principles to smart personal financial management are very important as this gives people the tools of empowerment to:

- Make better informed and productive everyday money decisions
- Save time and money with their financial advisors and service providers
- Have the best opportunities to reach and maintain their personal / family financial dreams
- Enjoy a financially secure debt free future
- Advance their legacy.

The Financial Awareness Foundation has two main focal points and they revolve around:

1. Taking an active leadership role to recognize organizations and their management that are championing improving financial awareness and financial literacy. We are then uniting them with other associations, organizations, nonprofits, educational institutions, municipalities, and employers to actively focus their vast community resources into The Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement & Campaigns - a growing concentrated personal finance content media blitz campaign every six months through the strategic campaign venues of
 - National Estate Planning Awareness Week – founders of The Financial Awareness Foundation approached Congressman’s Mike Thompson office with the idea of creating a National Estate Planning Awareness Week Congressional proclamation. After eighteen months of research and work in 2008 Congressman Thompson and 49 bipartisan congressmen and congresswomen co-authored and passed H.Res. 1499, which proclaims the third week in October as National Estate Planning Awareness Week. The full text of the proclamation can be found if you click onto or cut and paste the following URL into your web browser, enter, scroll down to Downloads and click on About National Estate Planning Awareness Week.
 - National Financial Literacy Month – in 2004 the Senate passed Resolution 316 that officially recognized April as National Financial Literacy Month. In 2011 President Obama signed a Presidential Proclamation proclaiming April as National Financial Literacy Month. The full text of the proclamation can be found if you click onto or cut and paste the following URL into your web browser, enter, scroll down to Downloads and click on About National Financial Literacy Month.
