The Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement in Kenya Executive Summary / Overview

Kenya has a population of nearly 54 million with a workforce of about 24 million (44%), and an unemployment rate near 6%. However, this leaves over 20 million Kenyans (37% of our population) struggling to survive on less than $1.90 USD per day; many so poor they cannot afford three meals a day for themselves and their family; in rural areas these numbers get higher. Further, 46 million (86% of our population) is living on less the $5.50 USD (International Poverty Line) ⁽¹⁾. We are also experiencing increases in debt.

We are not taught at home or school about planning for our future and why it's important to have a current financial, estate and gift plans to protect themselves and our families. We have a collection of serious problems resulting in a high percentage of poverty coupled with a lack of financial awareness resulting in a serious financial illiteracy epidemic. The lack of financial awareness, along with the financial illiteracy epidemic places a HUGE growing amount of pressure on families and friends, employers, nonprofits; as well as the ultimate safety net the government. This is not just a local epidemic it's an international one.

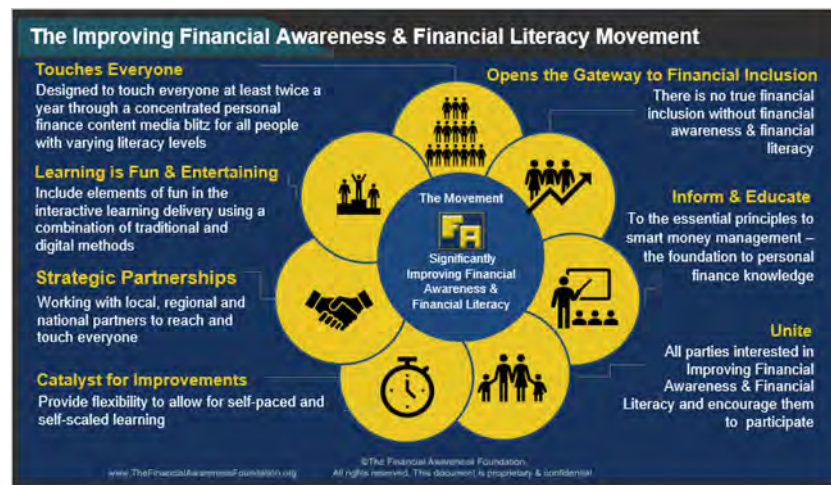

Earning and building personal wealth and managing personal finances today are more complicated and more important than ever. We're living longer and need to earn more, save more, and invest more wisely to build financial resources to care for ourselves and families. Many of us are insecure with our work and the future of our homes. We see our money being drained by the high cost of food and water, healthcare, housing, education, and taxes while dealing with the uncertainty of investments and our local and global economy. We worry about the future, or unfortunately in many cases, simply try not to think about it.

Most people are not taught the essential principles of smart money management – the foundation to personal finance knowledge - at home or in school. Thus they don't have the proper tools to address everyday financial decisions in an informed manner. This jeopardizes their financial and physical wellness, their ability to realistically achieve and maintain their personal and family financial dreams, let alone enjoy a financially secure debt free future.

One Powerful Solution

Wouldn't it be great if there is a real solution to this lack of financial awareness and financial illiteracy epidemic?

We strongly believe there is, and it revolves around better educating The People - the general public, educators, financial service and nonprofit professionals to the essential principles to smart money management – the foundation to personal finance knowledge - while motivating them to get and keep their financial, house in order with a current financial, estate and gift plan. People need access to better personal financial management tools and information, to communicate and work more effectively with their financial advisors and financial product providers and to make better informed every day money decisions.

We believe having better financial knowledge changes your world and the world around you... FOREVER

Countries and their communities are not financial service institutions and do not generally provide personal financial advice. However, they can serve as advocates for their citizens, workers, and politicians (The Community), and thus can encourage them to learn about the essential principles of smart personal financial management so they can make better every day informed money decisions. Also, they can encourage the members of The Community to get and keep their financial, estate and gift plans current as part of their personal growth and preparation for life and all its challenges.

Countries and their local communities are in a strategic leadership position to materially improve the quality of life of their citizens. This happens through governance, social welfare programs, laws and taxes, defense and protection, advanced healthcare, educational initiatives and through a new powerful life-long learning connection to the people that make up The Community.

Forming and participating in The Improving Financial Awareness & Financial Literacy Movement in Kenya will benefit 'The Entire Community in Kenya' by having happier and financially successful constituents, creating jobs and helping to build a robust economy, while reducing poverty, crime, and the strain on social welfare services all while eradicating the financial illiteracy epidemic..

Significantly improving financial awareness & financial literacy can have a major positive impact on:

- Healthcare - Advancements in healthcare and technology help us to live longer, healthier, and higher quality lives. Improving financial awareness and financial literacy will help us earn more, and attract needed money for a high quality education to take advantage of these healthcare advancements while reducing stress, a major cause of health problems.
- Education - Improving financial awareness and financial literacy will help us increase our quality of life, attracts the needed financial resources to advance our education system so that every man, woman, and child has the fundamental life skills, knowledge, and opportunity to live successful, happy and productive lives.
- Agriculture & Food Supply - The important agricultural sector is under developed and largely inefficient, employing 54% of the workforce while contributing about 23% to the national GDP. In many parts of the world under 10% of the agricultural workforce feeds the entire populations and has surplus for exports. Improving financial awareness and financial literacy will help to better manage natural resources, better feed and provide for the growing population, while creating higher paying jobs for farmers to better grow a sustainable economy. ⁽²⁾
- Economic Empowerment & Jobs - Key drivers of our economy revolves around every man, woman and child having their basic need covered with encouragement, education and support to enhance all Kenyans to live successful, happy and productive lives. We give particular emphasis to significantly improve financial awareness and financial literacy as this empowers all people to make better informed everyday money decisions. This helps all Kenyans to obtain great jobs and build a better life for themselves and their families. This also encourages families, youth, women and men in Kenya to explore and initiate innovative businesses and micro-enterprises.
- Peace & Freedom from Violence - Lasting peace and freedom from violence will only exist when THE PEOPLE of Kenya are properly nourished, healthy, have low or no debt, and have the knowledge and life skills that provides them the opportunity to live happy productive lives, raise their families in safety - and don't run out of their personal wealth and become a burden, before they pass.
